Tips

For Bruneians coming to Qatar, there are limited money changers that accept BND, therefore it is highly suggested to convert your money to SGD / USD prior to arriving.

Welcome to Qatar

A Bruneian visitor's guide to Qatar

Prior to Arrival

Make sure you have prepared all the necessary documentation required to visit Qatar, including:

Visa requirement

Qatar provides Brunei Darussalam passport holders a visa waiver valid for 30 days upon arrival, which may be extended for a further 30 days.

Purchase Health Insurance

Travellers visiting Qatar are recommended to have a valid health insurance policy covering Qatar's medical facilities.

Those who do not already have an insurance policy are welcome to purchase one for QAR 50.00 (~BND20) on arrival

E-Register

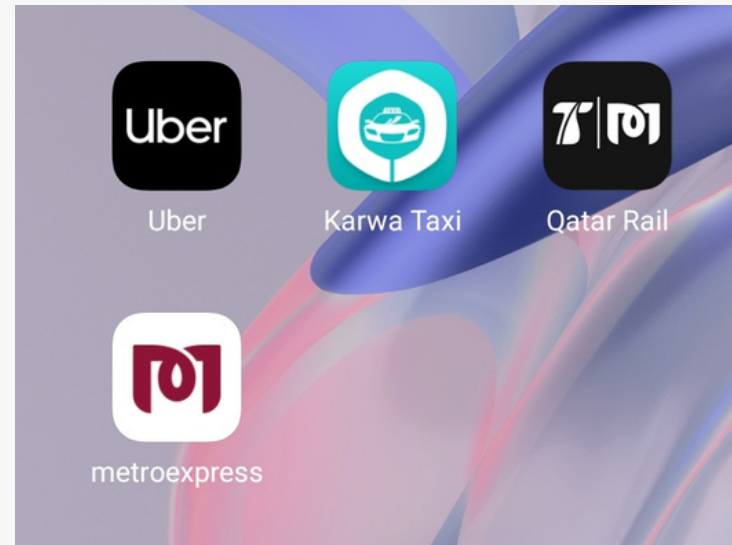

We recommend e-registering with the Ministry of Foreign Affairs of Brunei Darussalam prior to arriving to Doha, Qatar.

Getting Around Qatar

...is easy with a ready availability of taxis, ride-sharing apps, buses, metros and trams.

Here are some suggested apps to have ready:

If you're travelling via metro, don't forget to get your metro card!

Attire in Qatar

People can generally wear their clothing of choice, but visitors will be expected to cover their shoulders and knees when visiting museums and government buildings.

Fun Fact

Machboos is the national dish of Qatar. For desserts, try out Umm Ali or Kunafa.
